19. The system of claim 6, wherein the at least one of chat bot interaction rules, image classification rules, and data acquisition rules comprises criteria for accessing one or more datasets.

20. The system of claim 19, wherein the image classification rules are configured to compare facial recognition data of the specific entity to labeled image data to determine a label for the specific entity.

* * * * *